

ARDS Instructor Licensing Pack

INSTRUCTING AT RACING SCHOOLS

To instruct at an ARDS Member Racing School a driver must be in possession of a current ARDS Instructor Licence. These licenses are issued by the MSA (the Motor Sports Association) on ARDS' recommendation subject to the applicant meeting the required criteria.

Licence grades are determined by qualifications, training and experience, all of which must be clearly demonstrated and are subject to audit by ARDS and the MSA.

All drivers applying for an ARDS Instructor licence for the first time must:

- apply for and read this ARDS Instructor Pack;
- complete the first instructor licence application form and send it to their sponsor school together with a cheque for £249.00 for a Grade C Licence or £169 for a Grade D Licence (made payable to ARDS Limited);
- complete the specified training at an ARDS member school (the instructor may be required to meet some or all of the costs of this training);
- pass an assessment.

All drivers renewing or upgrading their ARDS Instructor licence must:

- undertake appropriate approved annual refresher training and re-assessment (the instructor may be required to meet some or all of the costs of this training);
- complete the relicensing application form and return to ARDS together with a cheque for £170.00 (made payable to ARDS Limited, discounted rates apply for Grade D instructors and BARS / ARKS / AHASS members, see online for details at www.ards.co.uk);
- be approved for relicensing by their sponsoring school.

INSTRUCTING JUNIOR DRIVERS

Only the following ARDS Schools are authorised to carry out the Junior Driver Assessment: Anglesey, Croft, Knockhill, MSV (Brands Hatch), Race School Ireland, Silverstone and Thruxton. Each school will nominate instructors whom it has trained to carry out the assessment. These approved instructors will have an endorsement to that effect added to their MSA licence. The list of ARDS Licensed instructors online will also flag those instructors approved for junior driver training.

Junior Drivers are defined as being aged from 14 to 16 years.

To instruct Junior Drivers, or to carry out the special ARDS Test for Junior Drivers, an Instructor must be currently licensed at Grade S.

Only those instructors nominated by their sponsor school to instruct Junior Drivers may do so.

INSTRUCTING ON TRACK DAYS

Instructors planning to work on Track Days may apply to be included on the Register of Approved Track Day Instructors. This Register covers events run at MSA licensed race tracks which are members of AMRCO (The Association of Motor Racing Circuit Owners) by ATDO (The Association of Track Day Organisers) members. Instructors qualifying for inclusion on the Register may apply to have their Instructor Licence credentials and personal accident insurance extended to this activity subject to:

- as a prerequisite, holding a current ARDS Instructor Licence at Grade B or higher;
- initially attending, at their own cost, an approved ATDO training day and achieving a pass standard assessment to gain a probationary licence;
- subsequently collecting the necessary signatures to demonstrate satisfactory completion of supervised work experience;

- for annual renewal, demonstrating by auditable record that they have worked to a standard acceptable to ATDO and ARDS for at least 5 days in the past 12 months;

OR

- undertaking appropriate approved annual refresher training and re-assessment at their own cost and achieving the required standard.

ISSUE OF FIRST ARDS INSTRUCTOR LICENCE

The first ARDS Instructor Licence issued to a driver wishing to instruct on track will be Probationary Grade C unless the ARDS Member School sponsoring the driver's application recommends that due to exceptional racing and instructing experience a higher initial grade should be issued and ARDS, at its absolute discretion, in turn makes such a recommendation to the MSA.
